MEET IN INTEREST OF BETTER ROADS

Enthusiastic Gathering of Representative Men at Pamplin City.

SENATOR LASSITER SPEAKS

Gives Short History of Work Accomplished by Virginia Association.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PAMPLIN CITY, Va., November 27.—

The Industrial Association of this city held a very enthusiastic good roads meeting here this afternoon. Representative citizens from Appomattox, Prince Edward and Charlotte counties were in attendance.

Mayor O. E. Peterson, who is also president of the Industrial Association, presided and introduced the speakers. State Senator Charles T. Lassiter, vice-president and field officer of the Virginia Good Roads Association, was the first speaker, and as an introductory word before the warriors spring forward to fight. According to the Century Dictionary, an orator is "one who argues in favor of a person or a cause." It does not necessarily mean that a person has to be eloquent in order to be an orator, but he must argue reasonably and seek to convince the intelligence in behalf of his cause.

"I frequently hear men say: 'You can't build roads with Virginia.' The orator spoke the inspiration word before the warriors spring forward to fight. According to the Century Dictionary, an orator is 'one who argues in favor of a person or a cause.' It does not necessarily mean that a person has to be eloquent in order to be an orator, but he must argue reasonably and seek to convince the intelligence in behalf of his cause.

MINES AND BURIED TREASURES DISCOVERED

The mineral wealth of the South has hardly been scratched. Untold millions in gold, silver, iron and copper mines await the fortunate man or men who discover their true location.

A wonderful instrument called the Spanish Magnetizer has recently been perfected, which has been used with wonderful accuracy in discovering both mines and treasures. The needle has been made of a special alloy of iron and steel, and is so sensitive that it will detect the presence of any metal, whether it be gold, silver, iron or copper. It is a complete line of these needles and other mineral rods and would be glad to correspond with anyone interested in the subject. They have a large catalog which will be mailed free to anyone writing them. Address P. M. Agency, 91 First St., Philadelphia, Pa.

News of Manchester

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, 1103 Hull Street.

With a view of preparing the voters of Manchester for the coming ballot on the question of consolidation with Richmond, and having in mind the necessity of overcoming the strong lobby, and those having personal interest in opposing the union, the association committee of the Manchester and Chesterfield Business Men's Association, at a special meeting Friday night, took steps to see to it that every male citizen of Manchester over twenty-one years of age pays his poll tax during this week, so that the question of union may be squarely decided on its merits by a vote of the people of the Southside city, without the juggling of politicians or the intervention of office-holders.

The following committee was named to press the canvass of the city: W. H. Owens, master mechanic of the Southern Railway, chairman; Frank B. Dunford, W. H. Washington, James F. Bradley and T. J. Nichols. The committee is to name ten representative citizens in each of the four wards of Manchester to canvass all voters and see that all are qualified within the next few days.

An election on the issue is now regarded as not only desirable but inevitable. The action of City Attorney Page in changing the conditions after they had been agreed upon, and of the Manchester Council committee in changing the agreement, leads many to believe that the committee was astounded at Richmond's conceding all former points of contest, and is now disposed to make the ordinance more drastic and less probable of passage in the Richmond City Council. The committee on annexation of the Manchester and Chesterfield Business Men's Association is also considering the advisability of employing a disinterested lawyer—one who has no office at stake—to advise how an election on the question may be called over the head of the Council, and also to report whether or not the City Attorney has exceeded his authority in altering the meaning and terms of an agreement adopted by a committee of the City Council, sitting in the same room with a committee from the same Council, by whom the same agreement was adopted.

William is Improving. Stephen Williams, who was assaulted Thursday morning, is improving. The police have been informed by George Campbell, who works for Armour & Company, that when going to work Thursday morning about 3:30 o'clock, he saw Williams and another man on Hull Street, near seventh. He says the men were running up towards Eighth Street. The one in front was a stranger, whom he does not remember having seen before. As Campbell passed, Williams asked him where he was going. Williams was found in an unconscious condition by W. E. L. Smith, a negro fireman. When the police arrived they found a knife on the sidewalk a few inches from Williams' hand, which shows that he was in a way prepared to defend himself.

The only description that Campbell can give of the stranger is that he is about thirty years old, 5 feet 6 inches tall, and would weigh about 180 pounds. He wore a dark suit and hat, a white vest and a black tie.

Fun-Making Party. A "fun-making" party, for the benefit of Stockton Street parsonage, will be held at the home of Miss Ruby Price, 6 East Ninth Street, Tuesday evening, from 8 to 12 o'clock. Thanksgiving Sermon. The Councils of Rocky Ridge, No. 30; New South, No. 8; Davis, No. 27, and Liberty, No. 13, will march in a body to the West End Methodist Church this afternoon at 3 o'clock for their annual Thanksgiving sermon, as ordered by the proclamation issued by the State Council. Rev. T. C. Miles, of Clifton Street Baptist Church, will deliver the sermon.

Yates-Lipscombe. The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Yates, 14 East Eleventh Street, was the scene of a pretty marriage Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Bessie Lee, became the bride of W. R. Lipscombe, of Manchester.

Rev. J. T. Haley performed the ceremony. The bride entered on the arm of a cousin, Carroll Baird, and the groom with Alexander Bunt as his best man.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. They received numerous and handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Lipscombe are at home, 201 East Ninth Street, Manchester.

The Secret Of A Beautiful Complexion

Constitutional Treatment Will Accomplish More in a Week Than Local Applications in Six Months.

Contrary to general opinion, the acquiring and maintaining of a perfectly clear and faultless complexion does not depend upon the application of local treatment. There are many persons who spend small fortunes visiting "beauty specialists," and having their faces massaged with perfumed, pink-colored cold creams, or with electrical vibrations, hoping by these means to get rid of wrinkles and various skin blemishes.

Others spend much of their time steaming their faces with superheated vapor, which promotes a rapid and heavy perspiration, and for the time being relieves the pores of any matter which may be clogging them. But the great trouble with such treatments is that they achieve no permanent benefit, and whatever success they may accomplish is only momentary.

The reason is obvious. The trouble is constitutional and of being local, and for that reason general rather than topical treatment is naturally required. No one would think of trying to cleanse the sewerage system of a city by merely cleaning the external openings of a few of the sewers, and allowing the rest of the aqueduct to remain untouched. The whole system needs to be flushed and purified. The body is a sewerage system, and the waste material which enters it through the pores of the skin, or the other eliminating organs which dispose of the remaining four-fifths of the waste material, must be eliminated in their work of elimination, then the inevitable pimples, blackheads, liver spots, etc., appear upon the face, there to be given up to the owner of that face that something is wrong within; something is interfering with the work of the body, and whatever success they may accomplish is only momentary.

"Buck" Holloway, white, charged with vagrancy, was given five days in jail. Willard Robinson, colored, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was assessed $1 and costs.

Notes About Town. Mrs. B. D. Thames, of 2710 Hull Street, is visiting her former home in Columbia, S. C., and will visit friends in other parts of that State before returning to Manchester.

Services will be conducted at the Weatherford Memorial Baptist Church at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. to-day by Rev. E. D. Thames.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Jett, who were married in Washington city some time ago, have returned to Manchester, and are at home to their friends at the home of Mrs. Cora Cosby, 2705 Hull Street.

Henry B. Robb, son of Alexander Robb, has been taken to the home of his father in Swansboro, after an operation performed by Dr. George Ben Johnston at the Memorial Hospital in Richmond. The operation was successful, and an entire recovery is now expected.

A sociable and oyster supper was given on Friday night at the Baptist chapel by the workers of Woodland Heights and Forest Hill, and proved a great success. The proceeds were for the building fund of the church.

The Swansboro Educational Association will give a bazaar on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at the Bessie Store, 2701-2707 Hull Street. The proceeds will be used for the improvement of the heating plant of the Swansboro Grade School. Patrons and friends of the school are especially interested in the success of the entertainment.

G. W. Jewett, George W. Blankenship and George W. Sanders, of Manchester Lodge, No. 20, Knights of Pythias were appointed Friday night to consider consolidation with the Syracuse Lodge of Richmond.

Rev. J. S. Peters, will preach at Assembly Methodist Church to-day at 11 o'clock, and the pastor, Rev. W. G. Birch, will officiate at the evening service at 7:45 o'clock.

Rev. J. T. Haley will preach at the revival services at Oak Grove tonight.

The body of W. H. Utley, who died in Scranton, Pa., Thursday evening, arrived in Manchester yesterday, and was taken to the home of his sister. The funeral took place at the family residence at Hallsboro yesterday afternoon. Utley was a bridge engineer, working on the construction of a bridge in Scranton on Thursday, when he fell from the scaffold, breaking his back, dying a few hours later.

Nathan A. Fitzgerald, of Danville, who has been the guest of Mrs. Clara Dickinson, 201 East Eleventh Street, has returned home.

STEAMER ASHORE; FOURTEEN LOST

Heroic Efforts Made to Rescue Imperiled Passengers and Crew.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) TILLAMOOK, ORE., November 27.—The coasting steamer Argo went ashore near the entrance to Tillamook Bay late yesterday, and fourteen of her passengers and crew have been drowned. This morning she was hidden from view by a heavy fog. The schooner Oshkosh, which put out from Astoria late last night to go to her assistance, is believed to be standing by the stranded vessel, which got off the beach late night and was thought to be at anchor.

The lifeboat from Garibaldi Beach could not take the passengers and crew off yesterday on account of rough seas. It was only by almost superhuman efforts that Captain Farley, of the life crew, managed to take on board his boat some of the women. Owing to the danger of the heavy seas and battered condition of his boat, he would not take off more than four persons.

gers and several of the crew. Two women were rescued, but two others and a member of the life crew were drowned. A lifeboat containing Captain Snyder and ten other persons also was lost.

The lost: Nellie Hunter, aged six, a passenger; Mrs. L. A. Holdridge, Portland, Ore., passenger; Henry Wickman, member of the life saving crew. The rescued are J. A. Johnson, male; L. A. Holdridge, Portland, passenger; W. C. King, passenger; George Hunter, passenger; Holland, negro cook; Howard Wolfe, A. E. Millard, E. Stevenson.

Another lifeboat containing Mate Johnson and nine others was saved by the steamer Oshkosh. The Argo showed indications of turning turtle last night, and Captain Snyder ordered all on board to take to the boats.

Mate Johnson commanded one boat and Captain Snyder another. The two boats became separated in the mist and rough sea. Johnson's boat cruised around and was picked up by the Oshkosh, which had been beating up and down the coast in the vicinity of Tillamook Bay in an effort to locate the Argo.

It is believed Captain Snyder tried to make the shore with his boat and that in the effort his boat was overturned, as no signs of it were seen today.

MRS. FORD INDICTED

CINCINNATI, Ohio, November 27.—An indictment was returned by the Hamilton county grand jury against Mrs. Jeanette Stuart Ford, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the shortage of $643,000 in the accounts of Charles L. Warriner, former local treasurer of the Big Four Railroad.

The indictment charges Mrs. Ford with receiving funds stolen from the Big Four by Warriner. Mrs. Ford is now out on bond on a charge of having received $1,000 of the money alleged to have been taken by Warriner.

When informed by her attorney that she had been indicted, Mrs. Ford appeared in court and pleaded not guilty. Her bond was placed at $2,500, which she furnished.
